Dining Around

• Wyebrook Farm, 150 Wyebrook Road in Honey Brook, PA, offers Chef Eric Yost's menu of the farm's own grass-fed beef, heritage breed pork, free pastured chicken, plus other exceptional locally raised products, in an outdoor setting. Guests sit at custom-crafted wooden picnic tables and encouraged to take a stroll around the bucolic grounds, then take in views of the 350-acre farm. Chef Yost serves dinner Wednesday through Saturday, from 5:30 - 9 p.m. in a casual service style, with tables illuminated by lanterns, and set with cloth napkins, silverware and plates to complement the natural surroundings as the sun sets over the pastures and woods. Dining at Wyebrook Farm is BYOB. For reservations or info, call 610-942-7481 or visit www.wyebrookfarm.com.

• Pudge's Steaks and Hoagies, 401 Fayette Street in Conshohocken, PA, offers breakfast, steaks, hoagies, soups, salads, and sandwiches. Kids ten and under eat free on Monday nights. In addition to foot long steaks and hoagies, Pudge's serves up a colossal 20 inch sandwich ($15 - $18.50). Those who want the chance to win a $100 jackpot can attempt to devour the monstrous sandwich, along with fries, and a large soda within 30 minutes. For each failed attempt, Pudge's adds $5 to the pot. A similar challenge is consuming the Godzilla Burger, a quadruple cheeseburger with pork roll, fries and a large soda within 10 minutes. For info, call 484-351-8029 or visit online at www.pudgesconshy.com.

Special Event

• No Dog Gets Left Behind, a nonprofit that works to reunite military members with war-torn pups they bonded with while deployed in Iraq and Afghanistan, will host a Dog Days of Summer Event, Saturday, August 16, from 12 - 4 p.m., at the North Penn VFW Post 676 located at 2519 Jenkintown Road in Glenside, PA, to raise funds and awareness for their newest initiative, Save a Dog Save a Veteran, launched to help veterans suffering from PTSD. The organization provides funding to bring an Afghanistan dog to the U.S., and cover all costs necessary for the dog to become a PTSD service dog for a veteran in need. For tickets (purchase in advance, and free for children younger than five, $10 for children older than five, and $25 for adults) or info, visit <http://save-the-pups.org/dogdays/>. Event Highlights: Music, Kids' Activities, Raffle Prizes, 50/50 chances, dessert trucks and more. Buy tickets online at www.save-the-pups.org or at the door. Admission includes food, unlimited beer/wine for the adults, and soda for the Kids
